Penalty, see 90.99 B

90.05: Impoundment Livestock

Reports of livestock at large will be referred to the Arizona Livestock Department

90.06: Running Animal At – Large

- A. It is unlawful for an owner or responsible person of an animal or fowl to allow such animal to be at large within the Town limits. The owner or responsible person of an animal shall provide adequate fencing and/or enclosures to keep their animals contained on their property or if off the property, are under the owner's or responsible person's direct supervision and control. Penalty, see 90.99.
- B. The impounding of livestock found running at large will be referred to the Arizona Livestock Department.
- C. Any animal at large may be apprehended and impounded by Animal Control Officer or Police Officer.
 1. Animal Control Officers shall have the right to enter upon private property after attempts to notify the owner have been made, provided the animal has been identified or visually seen as being at large, when it is necessary to do so in order to apprehend any animal that has been at large. The entrance upon private property shall be in reasonable pursuit of the animal and shall not include entry into a domicile; barrier fenced or walled area unless it is at the invitation of the occupant ~~or unless~~ the animal poses an immediate threat to the safety of the public. Areas enclosed only with decorative fencing, which allows an animal easy entry and exit through the fence, such as, but not limited to, split rail fences, will not be considered fenced ~~for the purpose of~~ enforcing this provision. Animal Control Officers shall have the right to enter onto private property to investigate animal related complaints, which by their nature pose a health hazard to the public or animal
 2. Animal Control Officers may issue citation(s) for an animal at large to the owner or responsible person of that animal. The procedure for the issuance of a Notice to Appear shall be as provided for peace officers in A.R.S 13-3903 except the Animal Control Officer shall not make an arrest before issuing the notice. The issuance of citations pursuant to this chapter shall be subject to the provisions of A.R.S. 13-3899.
 3. In the sole discretion of the Animal Control Officer, if any dog or other animal at large is dangerous, vicious, or a threat to human safety and cannot be impounded without danger to the Animal Control Officer or others, it may be immediately destroyed. Only in a humane way, by a licensed veterinarian.

4. Stray animals, whose owners cannot be identified ~~{(by either a tattoo or micro chipped)}~~, may be destroyed by the Animal Officer only after it has been reasonably determined that the animal is injured, suffering and beyond hope or recovery. As determined by a licensed veterinarian.

D. An animal is not at large:

1. If such animal is a dog and is engaged in obedience training, accompanied by and under the control of its owner or trainer.
2. While such animal is being used for legitimate hunting purposes.
3. While such animal is being exhibited in a sanctioned event.
4. If while off the premises of the owner is under the owner's direct supervision and control.
5. If such animal is a dog and is being utilized as a service dog for a handicapped person or a seeing-eye dog in assisting a legally blind person.
6. If such animal is a dog and is being used to control livestock.

90.07: Impounding of Animals

- A. Any stray animal shall be impounded. All impounded animals shall be given proper care and maintenance ~~{(including examination by a licensed veterinarian and treatment if so ordered)}~~.
- B. Each impounded licensed, micro chipped or tattooed animal shall be kept and maintained at the animal shelter for a minimum of ten ~~{(10)}~~ days unless claimed by its owner or responsible person. An unlicensed animal will be kept and maintained at the animal shelter for a minimum of five ~~{(5)}~~ days. Any animal found without a tag, chipping device or tattoo identifying its owner ~~shall~~should be deemed not owned.
- C. An impounded licensed or unlicensed animal may be adopted upon expiration of the impoundment period, provided the person pays the appropriate adoption fees and complies with licensing and vaccinating provisions of this chapter. Adoption fees may be waived for recognized nonprofit animal rescue groups. No animal will be released for use in medical research. Animal Control Officers may destroy impounded, ~~sicksick~~, or injured animals whenever the destruction is necessary to prevent the animal from suffering or to prevent the spread of disease. Provided such is confirmed by a licensed veterinarian.
- D. Any licensed impounded animal may be reclaimed by its owner or responsible Person within ten ~~{(10)}~~ days, provided the person reclaiming the animal furnishes proof of the right to do so, proof of rabies vaccination, pays all animal shelter fees, medical fees, service and license fees as applicable. If the animal is not reclaimed with the impoundment period, the Animal Control Officer shall take possession and may place the animal for adoption or may dispose of the animal in a human manner. As prescribed by a licensed veterinarian.
- E. Any animal, except those showing signs of rabies, which it is necessary to destroy, shall be destroyed by a state licensed veterinarian.
- F. Any animal surrendered by its owner or responsible person to be destroyed becomes the property of the Town. All associated fees will be paid by the owner or responsible person that surrenders the animal.

- G. Animal Control Officers will make reasonable efforts to promote adoption of as many animals as possible. Adoption is deemed preferable over termination. Adoptable or Special Animals may be kept longer than ten ~~((10))~~ days at the discretion of the Animal Control Officer.

90.08

Powers and Duties of the Animal Control Officer
